💡 Did you Know?

DSP Recognition Week is September 13-19, 2026.

September is Direct Support Professional (DSP) Recognition Month, a time to celebrate the dedicated professionals who provide essential supports to individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities, autism, and brain injury. DSPs are educators, advocates, caregivers, mentors, and trusted partners who help people live, work, and thrive in their communities. Their compassion, skill, and commitment make a meaningful difference every day, often in ways that go unseen. Throughout the month, we proudly recognize and thank DSPs for their invaluable contributions and for the positive impact they have on the lives of the individuals and families they support.
